LETTER FROM TRANSVAAL

A Salem Boy Writes From There. Says It's an Unjust War.
The following items of interest are culled from a letter received from Winn Newton brother of Miss Augusta Newton and uncle of Fred Smith, both of this city, having been raised here. The letter was written on November the 11th, from Durban, Natal, South Africa.

"I write you to let you know that I am still among the living. I arrived here on the 29th of October from Johannesburg, came by the way of Lorenzo Marquis, Delagoa Bay, on the east coast, then by steamer to this port. I expect to remain here a week or so, when I will go to Cape Town. Expect to have Christmas dinner in Cape Town.

"The mines on the Rand are all closed down now so I thought I would go to the coast because living is cheaper here than in Johannesburg.

"Durban has a population of about 12,000 and is a very pretty place. "In regard to the war: There has not been much fighting yet, but so far, the Boers have got decidedly the best of it. England has no map when she goes against the Dutch. I saw hundreds of the wounded come in from the front to the hospitals which are located here and all that are able to stand the Journey are brought here and cared for. The Boers have the best guns and the best shots. Their guns out-ranged the English. I tell you they (the English) fight cheap to think of being taken prisoners by the Boers. They have now about 3000 prisoners in charge up in the Transvaal, not in cages, but they have them just the same. I don't think it is a just war, for I think that if England would have let them alone for a while that the country would have been all right. Of course the country is new, (speaking of the Transvaal) but they are a pretty sharp lot of fellows that have control of the government.

"Durban is a great bathing place and hundreds bathe every day. Am stopping only 200 yards from the beach. The water is warm and bathing is dangerous as sharks are plentiful here."

Started New Hair

Hon. John H. Gardner, member Wyoming State Legislature from Bonanza, Crook Co., in letter dated February 20, 1899, to the

says: "According to agreement made in Salt Lake City, if your preparations proved a benefit to my hair, I was to send you a testimonial. There is a fine growth of new hair started. I am not troubled any more with dandruff and everything I could hear of before I saw you, but received no benefit. You can use this if you wish. Please send me half-dozens."

We have thousands of testimonials equally as strong. All hair and scalp troubles readily succumb to these mercurial preparations.

Salt Lake City—An Important Factor in Transcontinental Travel.
No one crossing the continent can afford to omit Salt Lake City from his route. The attractions of the place, including the Mormon Temple, Tabernacle and Church institutions, the Great Salt Lake—dearer and denser than the Dead Sea in the Holy Land—the picturesque environment and the warm sulphur and Hot Springs, are greater to the square yard than any locality on the American continent.

The Rio Grande Western Railway, connecting on the East with the Denver & Rio Grande and Colorado Midland Railways and on the West with the Southern Pacific (Central Route) and Oregon Short Line, is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City. The route through Salt Lake City via the Rio Grande Western Railway is famous all the year round. On account of the equable climate of Utah and Colorado it is just as popular in winter as in summer. Send 2c to J. D. Mansfield, 253 Washington St., Portland, Ore., W. Helms, Acting General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City, for a copy of "Salt Lake City—the City of the Saints."

A LIFE SAVED.
Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Specialist, Succeeds Where Other Fail.

To whom it may concern:
This is to certify that Bertha P. Conner, of Mt. Angel precinct, Marion county, Oregon, has suffered from a cancerous growth in the left ear for about three years. The growth was cut out twice and burned out once by Albany Physicians, but the growth came back as bad as ever and caused her so badly that she had to be taken from school. After three weeks' treatment by Dr. J. F. Cook, of Salem, Oregon, the Botanical Specialist, the growth entirely disappeared, and at this date, four months since treatment was begun, the growth has not reappeared, and the ear has entirely healed leaving only the scars indicated by the Albany doctors.

I hereby certify that the above statement is absolutely true, and that Bertha P. Conner, the person mentioned in the affidavit, has resided in my family since early childhood, bearing the relationship to me of niece.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this eighth day of June, 1899. W. W. Hall, county clerk of Marion county Oregon.

All diseases successfully treated and cured.
